

I have recently become a subscriber to xm radio, and I think it is incredible. My wife frequently travels to St. Louis, and she is able to check the weather for her trips. I do not know why this is so wrong. Why should this matter to the NAB whether or not xm radio can provide these types of services. We pay for these services, and the quality is so much better than regular fm or am. Please make the right decisions on this matter.

T.J.Gale